Make a Difference Through Public Service

Bachelor of Public Management
(BPM)

The BPM program equips students with foundational skills relevant to work in public sector organizations. The BPM program encourages study in related areas such as architecture, business, criminal justice, political science, psychology, social work, and urban and regional planning. Students have an opportunity to adapt their programs of study to fit their own academic and career interests.

Program Coordinator: Dr. Cliff McCue

Bachelor of Public Safety Administration (BPSA)

The BPSA program offers students the opportunity to specialize in two different areas of public safety: law enforcement and disaster management. The program creates a foundation for anyone interested in entering the fields of law enforcement, corrections, homeland security, and emergency/disaster management. The degree offers students the choice of a fully online program, or a hybrid of online and in-class instruction.

Program Coordinator: Dr. Alka Sapat
asapat@fau.edu

Master of Public Administration
(MPA)

The MPA program enhances ethical public service values and advances the state of knowledge in public administration by providing intellectual, analytical, technical, and practical education. The program provides professional education for leadership and management by offering a broad-based core curriculum that covers the essentials of both leadership and management in social, economic, and political contexts.

Program Coordinator: Dr. Robin Larson
rlarson2@fau.edu

Master of Nonprofit Management (MNM)

The MNM program prepares leaders of mission-driven organizations to excel in their professions and disciplines and to provide the critical, analytical, managerial, and operational education necessary to inform theory and practice of effective service delivery in a nonprofit environment. The MNM program is designed to provide graduates with the necessary skills to enter or to progress in leadership roles in non-profit organizations.

Program Coordinator: Dr. Robin Larson

Ph.D. in Public Administration

The Ph.D. program focuses on preparing students for successful careers in academia and research, but the program accommodates a broad array of career goals. Students can choose their area of concentration in Organizational Studies, Public Administration Theory, Public Budgeting and Financial Administration, Public Policy Studies, and Urban and Regional Planning.

Program Coordinator: Dr. Arthur Sementelli
